Networked Acquires AmCom

Grass Valley, CA May 3 - Networked Insurance Agents, a subsidiary of Strongwood Insurance Holdings Corporation, has announced its acquisition of AmCom Insurance Services, Inc.

AmCom, established in 1996, is a full service Managing General Agency located in San Francisco's East Bay, CA. James Furey, who has been President of AmCom, remains with the firm in a similar capacity as President, Sales Development.

AmCom focuses on commercial automobile programs, including artisan contractors, inland marine, intermediate trucking and sand and gravel. The corporation has more than 120 brokers selling its products throughout California.

With this acquisition, Networked now offers a broader array of products to its 1,300 affiliated brokers throughout the western states.

Networked Insurance Agents (networkedins.com) is an insurance aggregator, providing independent agencies with a variety of services including access to more than 50 carriers. Serving agents in 11 western states, the company writes business in all states. Based in Grass Valley, California, Networked was founded in 1991. Agencies appointed by Networked have access to online multi-carrier quoting, placement specialists and territorial sales vice presidents. Affiliates own 100% of their books of business and access Commercial and Personal Lines, Workers' Compensation, Farm & Ag, Surety Bonds, Programs, Excess and Surplus Lines.
